4. Review of Services

The board will review services provided by ADI and Montessori West (MWI) Business Office. Eric Alexander will be available to answer questions.

Presentation, discussion, and possible action:

The board reviewed the letter from Eric Alexander regarding the work currently being done by MWI.

Eric made the offer to transition all of the work MWI has been responsible for to other entities (ADI or other options) within the next 2 months for $3000/month for the next two months and then there will be no payment necessary for the third month. Whitney will make the AP for $3000 for the next two months.

The board and Montessori administration will work over the next quarter to get a better picture of what bills will need to be paid. The board and administration will look into options for getting the remainder of the services transitioned to either ADI or other options.

Montessori will be getting a new credit card within the next month.

Motion to accept Eric's offer of changing his fee to $3000/month over at least two months.	Mr. Andy Vaughan

5. Primary Teacher Salaries

The board will review options for paying for Kindergarteners at The Sunnyside and Westside Campuses. Documents for consideration provided by Eric Alexander.

Presentation, discussion, and possible action:

Eric was reminded that there are 4 primary teachers rather than 3. Therefore, the board proposal needs to be revised.

The board is trying to determine whether it is more fiscally responsible to pay the primary teacher full salaries or pay rent (which includes salaries and facilities).

Motion to allow Eric and Whitney to revise the proposal and the topic will be revisited at the next board meeting.	Mr. Andy Vaughan
Seconded Ms. Beya Thayer Dr. Sara Clancey Aye

6. Use of Prop301 Money

The board will discuss the use of Prop301 money, particularly related to the carryover of Prop301 funds. A representative from ADI will be available to answer questions on uses for this money.

Discussion and possible action to allocate Prop301 money for FY23 :

Hannah Moody was present to answer questions regarding how the school can use the extra Prop 301 money. Hannah reported that starting on March 18, 2021, changes were made to the spending guidelines. She reported that ADI recommends spending down these monies. The three spending categories for Prop 301 money are: base salary, performance bonuses (must follow guidelines), other (class size reduction positions).

The idea of using the money for 'direct counseling services expenses' was discussed. The board agreed to spend the money on counseling services for the upcoming school year.

Motion to modify the budget so that the $44,000 carry-over prop 301 money be spent for direct counseling services.	Dr. Kyler Kuehn
